Please return completed application by February 1, 2019 to:
Ohio State University Extension, Ross County
Attn: Todd Holdren, Camp Personnel Director
4951 Marietta Road
Chillicothe, OH 45601
Ross-Hocking Extension Camp Association, Inc.

The Association camps at Tar Hollow State Park Camp, which is situated on Pine Lake in the Tar Hollow State Forest, approximately 15 miles east of Chillicothe. The Association rents the entire resident camp area from the State of Ohio for five weeks. The 2019 dates will be June 9 through July 15, 2019. Potential employees should be available for work at all times during this period.

The camp has a central lodge for recreation and food services. The lodge can seat approximately 230 youth and staff. The kitchen will be operated by a food service. Swimming is at a private beach with a shallow swimming area enclosed by a dock. Permanent lodging is provided for both male and female staff along with all meals. A sick room and first aid station is available for the camp health director. Campers are housed in 28 individual units that will accommodate seven campers and one counselor.

The counties in the Ross-Hocking Extension Camp Association are: Athens, Fairfield, Pickaway, and Ross. Questions can be addressed to the 4-H Youth Development Educators in these counties or Todd Holdren, Personnel Director at 740-701-7232 or email at toddholdren79@gmail.com. All applications should be returned to: Ohio State University Extension, Ross County, Attention: Todd Holdren, Camp Personnel Director, 4951 Marietta Road, Chillicothe, Ohio 45601. Applications are to be submitted by February 1, 2019. A brief description of each position follows. For a full job description, please see the 4-H Camp Manual of the Association. Manuals are available at the Extension Offices of those counties in the Association.
