

Check Out Service-Learning!

Serve your community, build your skills, and earn class credit at the same time!

If you're a student who cares about your community and wants to see how you can use your education to make a difference, service-learning is the opportunity for you! Service-Learning courses work to connect community service with learning outcomes. You'll get a chance to work with a local community partner, providing hands-on solutions for community problems and finding out how what you can learn in the classroom applies to the world around you. With over 70 courses in a variety of disciplines, this is a great time to jump into service-learning at Ohio State
