

RANDOLPH FAIR 4-H BENEFIT BAKED GOODS DISPLAY CONTEST
Sponsored by Life Skills Committee
Sunday of the Fair
Entertainment Center, Randolph Fairgrounds

First impressions are everything when it comes to food. We've all said, "That looks so good," before digging into dinner or dessert. If food looks good, you want to taste it.

With a little bit of planning, you can make an auction bidder want to taste your baked item! The goal of the Baked Goods Display Contest is to encourage you to display your baked item in an attractive manner.

Baked Goods Display

All bake sale entries must be in a solid non-returnable container or plate that protects the baked item from dust and insects. The Baked Goods Display contest encourages participants to be creative in how their baked item is presented for sale. A cute basket, plate, tin or decorated box makes a baked item look even better! For pies, the carrier or container into which the pie is placed for easy transport is judged-so be creative! Sources for cute plates and containers at low cost include garage sales or local Goodwill stores.

Your container must be easy for a person to carry.

BAKED GOODS DISPLAY CONTEST RULES

1. All entries in the Randolph Fair 4-H Benefit Baking Contest and Auction are automatically entered in the Baked Goods Display Contest.
2. The container must be no more than 12 x18 inches in size or about the size of a large cookie sheet. This rule ensures the bake sale entry is easy for the buyer to carry.
3. Participants will be judged according to their 4-H age: Junior Division (9-13 years old as of January 1) and Senior Division (14-18 years old as of January 1).
4. The judged Junior and Senior Divisions will have first, second and third place awards.
5. The awards will be cash awards. First place in Junior and Senior divisions receive $25; second place in Junior and Senior divisions receive $15; and third place in Junior and Senior divisions receive $10. The judges for the Randolph Fair 4-H Benefit Baking Contest and Auction are also the judges for the Baked Goods Display Contest.
6. Judging will take place from noon until 2:00 p.m. in the Entertainment Center on Sunday of fair.
7. This is a fun activity as well as a fund raiser. Our judges are not experts in the field, but base their decisions on what visually appeals to them. Remember, our judges and committee members are volunteers!
