Ohio State University Extension

Corn, Soybean and Wheat Connection
From Ohio State University Extension’s Agronomic Crops Team

January 14th Corn Production 7:00-8:30 pm

- Optimizing Corn Yields-Assessing the Contribution of Key Agronomic Management Factors
  Dr. Peter Thomison, State Specialist Corn Production, Ohio State University Extension

- Seed Treatments in Corn: Impacts on Pests and Pollinators
  Dr. Andy Michel, State Specialist Field Crops Entomology, Ohio State University Extension
  Dr. Reed Johnson, Entomologist Apiculture, The Ohio State University

February 11th Soybean Production 7:00-8:30 pm

- Everything but the Kitchen Sink: High Input Soybean Production
  Dr. Laura Lindsey, State Specialist Soybean & Small Grains Production, Ohio State University Extension

- Updates on Fungicides and Resistance, Soybean Cyst Nematode and Seed Treatments
  Dr. Anne Dorrance, State Specialist Plant Pathology Soybeans, Ohio State University Extension

February 25th Weed Control 10 am-Noon

- Update on New Herbicides/Recommendations, and Managing Herbicide Site of Action
  Dr. Mark Loux, State Specialist Weed Management, Ohio State University Extension

Hardin County OSU Extension Office
1021 W. Lima St.
Kenton

No charge to attend.
Please register ahead to guarantee space.

Call the Hardin County OSU Extension Office at 419-674-2297 or email badertscher.4@osu.edu to register for any or all programs.

http://agcrops.osu.edu/