Grain Marketing Topic of Breakfast
by Mark Badertscher, OSU Extension Educator

Hardin County – The 2018 Conservation Tillage Club breakfast program series will continue on Tuesday, January 23 at the Plaza Inn Restaurant in Mt. Victory. Each session will start at 7:30 am with complimentary buffet breakfast followed by the program at 8:00 am. Other sessions will be held on February 6 and 20.

The January 23 program will feature Ben Brown, Worldwide Grain Markets 10 Year Forecast & Farmers’ Grain Marketing Toolkit. Brown is the program manager of the OSU Farm Management Program. He has previously worked at the Food and Agricultural Policy Research Institute at the University of Missouri, where he also received his M.S. in Agriculture and Applied Economics. Previously, he earned his B.S. in Agriculture Economics and Agronomy at Kansas State University. His previous work looked at supply and demand in regards to grain prices over a 10 year worldwide forecast and is currently creating a grain marketing toolkit for farmers to assist them with this aspect of their business.

The Conservation Tillage Club breakfast program series is jointly sponsored by OSU Extension and the Soil and Water Conservation Districts of Hardin, Logan, and Union Counties, and in cooperation with the USDA Natural Resources Conservation Service. Breakfast is provided by the generous support of agricultural lenders and agricultural businesses. All events are open to the public and no advance registration is required. Continuing education credits for Certified Crop Advisers are available.
