Spring Garden Library Programs

Wednesdays
April 29 @ 6:30 pm
(Forest-Jackson Library)

May 6 & 13 @ 7:00 pm
(Kenton Mary Lou Johnson District Library)

April 29 – Planting for Pollinators
Master Gardener Volunteer Barb Snyder will be presenting a program on “Planting for Pollinators.” She will be discussing how to plant areas of your landscape that will attract bees and other pollinators to naturally provide flourishing fruits, vegetables, and flowers on your property.

May 6 – Getting Kids Interested in Gardening
Master Gardener Volunteer Judy Dorsey will share ideas about “Getting Kids Interested in Gardening.” She will give tips on getting kids started in gardening and how to keep them interested.

May 13 – Annuals & Perennials
Master Gardener Volunteers Richard Aller and Sandy Pruden will present a program on annuals and perennials, selection, care, planting, and what’s new in the variety of plants available.
