Lamb Banquet March 2

Hardin County - The Hardin County Sheep Improvement Association will hold their annual Lamb Banquet on Saturday, March 2 at St. John’s Evangelical Church in Kenton at 6:30 pm. Tickets for the banquet can be reserved from the Extension office by calling 419-674-2297 and paid for at the door the night of the banquet. Adult tickets are $15, Children $7, and 2018 Hardin County Junior Fair Sheep Exhibitors are free with a reservation given to the Extension office by February 22. Banquet guests are asked to arrive early to participate in the silent auction bidding for various items that were donated to provide funds for the scholarship program.

Tickets can also be purchased until February 22 from the following county Sheep Improvement Association Directors: Dave Ramsey, Megan Burgess, Randy Buxton, Bruce Donnelly, Scott Elliott, Cory Wagner, Kristie Fay, Kenny Williams, Bruce Oberlitner, or Russell Senning. The banquet entertainment will be provided by the band “In-A-Jam.” A dinner will be prepared with various cuts of lamb for the banquet guests to enjoy.

The Hardin County Sheep Improvement Association is looking for 2019 Lamb & Wool Queen contestants and scholarship applicants. A queen applicant and her parent/guardian must be residents of Hardin County or a Hardin County School District prior to entering the contest, and live on a farm where sheep are produced or have a sheep project in the Hardin County Junior Fair to be eligible. Applicants must be 15 to 20 years of age as of January 1, 2019. Contestants must complete an entry form and prepare a three to five minute talk on the "Role of Youth in the Sheep Industry," “What does being a Lamb/Wool advocate mean to you?,” or “What are the positive things that you know about the Lamb/Wool industry?” For further information about the Lamb & Wool Queen contest, please contact Kristie Fay at 419-673-5368.

The Hardin County Sheep Improvement Association is also offering two five hundred dollar scholarships to students entering/attending college for the 2019-2020 school year. An applicant and his/her parent/guardian must be residents of Hardin County or a Hardin County School District prior to entering college, and must have had a sheep project and shown at the Hardin County Fair. The applicant must be maintaining a 2.5 grade point average on a 4.0 scale. For more information about the scholarship, please contact Carol Wagner at 419-674-2297.

Applications and rules for both the Hardin County Lamb & Wool Queen and the Scholarship are available online at https://hardin.osu.edu/news/hardin-county-royalty-and-scholarship-applications. Hard copies of the applications can be obtained from the OSU Extension office if needed at 1021 W. Lima Street, Suite 103, Kenton. Applications must be received either online or at the Hardin County Extension Office by February 22, 2019.
