

THE OHIO STATE UNIVERSITY

COLLEGE OF FOOD, AGRICULTURAL, AND ENVIRONMENTAL SCIENCES

Hardin County Extension News Release

For Further Information Contact:

Mark Badertscher

Agriculture and Natural Resources Extension Educator

Phone – 419-767-6037

E-Mail – badertscher.4@osu.edu

For Immediate Release – January 23, 2020

Plan to Attend the Farm Transition / Succession Workshop

Hardin County – A two-day workshop about Farm Transition / Succession is planned for February 3 and 25, 2020. Participants must attend both days. The workshop will be held at the Mid-Ohio Energy community room which is located at 1210 Lima Street, Kenton, OH 43326. Each day the program runs from 10:00 am to 3:00 pm with registration at 9:30 am.

One of Extension's most knowledgeable individuals regarding Farm Transition is David Marrison from Coshocton County. On the first Day of the workshop David will discuss the key questions to answer when planning for the future of the family farm business, providing income for multiple generations and developing the next generation of farm managers, retirement strategies, and much more.

The speakers for the second day are Robert Moore of Wright and Moore Law Co. and Peggy Hall, OSU Field Specialist for Agriculture and Resource Law. They will focus on topics such as analyzing risk in today's world, estate and transfer strategies, buy/sell agreements, tax implications of estate and transition planning, and much more.

The cost of the program is $30 per person made payable to OSU Extension – Hardin County. It is preferred that you call the Extension office to register and send in your registration fee prior to the program to the following address: 1021 W. Lima Street, Suite 103, Kenton, OH 43326. If you have questions about registering feel free to call the Hardin County Extension Office at 419-674-2297 or e-mail Mark Badertscher (badertscher.4@osu.edu). We look forward to seeing you at this excellent program about planning for the future of your farm.