Lamb Banquet March 7

Hardin County - The Hardin County Sheep Improvement Association will hold their annual Lamb Banquet on Saturday, March 7 at St. John’s Evangelical Church in Kenton at 6:30 pm. Tickets for the banquet can be reserved from the Extension office by calling 419-674-2297 and paid for at the door the night of the banquet. Adult tickets are $15, Children $7, and 2019 Hardin County Junior Fair Sheep Exhibitors are free with a reservation given to the Extension office by February 28. Banquet guests are asked to arrive early to participate in the silent auction, bidding for various items that were donated to provide funds for the scholarship program.

Tickets can also be purchased until February 28 from the following county Sheep Improvement Association Directors: Dave Ramsey, Megan Burgess, Randy Buxton, Bruce Donnelly, Scott Elliott, Kristie Fay, Kenny Williams, Bruce Oberlitner, Russell Senning, Craig Powell, Steve Saylor, Shane McCafferty, Melissa Gossard, or Kristen Ferguson. A dinner will be prepared with various cuts of lamb for the banquet guests to enjoy. Brady Campbell, OSU Sheep Team Program Coordinator will be the guest speaker.

The Hardin County Sheep Improvement Association is looking for 2020 Lamb & Wool Ambassador contestants and scholarship applicants. An ambassador applicant and his or her parent/guardian must be residents of Hardin County or a Hardin County School District prior to entering the contest, and live on a farm where sheep are produced or have a sheep project in the Hardin County Junior Fair to be eligible. Applicants must be 15 to 20 years of age as of January 1, 2020. Contestants must complete an entry form and prepare a three to five minute talk on the “Role of Youth in the Sheep Industry,” “What does being a Lamb/Wool advocate mean to you?,” or “What are the positive things that you know about the Lamb/Wool industry?” For further information about the Lamb & Wool Ambassador contest, please contact Kristie Fay at 419-673-5368.

The Hardin County Sheep Improvement Association is also offering three five hundred dollar scholarships to students entering/attending college for the 2020-2021 school year. An applicant and his or her parent/guardian must be residents of Hardin County or a Hardin County School District prior to entering college, and must have had a sheep project and shown at the Hardin County Fair. The applicant must be maintaining a 2.5 grade point average on a 4.0 scale. For more information about the scholarship, please contact Tori Kirian at 419-674-2297.

The application and rules for the Hardin County Lamb & Wool Ambassador are available at go.osu.edu/hardinlambwoolambassador and the scholarship application and rules can be found at go.osu.edu/hardinheepscholarship. Hard copies of the applications can be obtained from the OSU Extension office if needed at 1021 W. Lima Street, Suite 103, Kenton. Applications must be received either online or at the Hardin County Extension Office by February 28, 2020.
