The beef cattle industry is quickly evolving. Are you prepared to keep pace? Beef Quality Assurance is a way to show consumers that we are concerned about producing a safe nutritious product for their families.

Many buyers are starting to demand BQA certification when they purchase cows, fed cattle, and calves.

Learn how to properly give injections and use medications.

Dr. Steve Boyles will be here showing how to properly handle cattle and manage working facilities.

May 19th
4:00 P.M.

Contact:
Jeff Moore
Gallia County Extension Office
740-446-7007