Call for Student, Faculty, and Public Health Professional Abstracts (Deadline extended to 4/9/20!)

Opportunities for poster and oral presentations

Sorry!
We are not meeting in person this year!

STUDENTS: To be eligible for student presentation, you must currently be a student or have graduated May 2019 or later.

FACULTY OR PUBLIC HEALTH PROFESSIONAL: Include the information below except for preceptor/faculty name and graduation date.

ALL SUBMISSIONS: Please provide the information below on an MS Word attachment and send electronically to Amy Lee, pubhlth@neomed.edu by 4/9/20, Thursday, by 5 p.m. Label the document with your last name (e.g. LASTNAME_Abtract). If you are a student, include STUDENT in your file document title (e.g. LASTNAMESTUDENT_Abtract).

- Title of abstract
- Submission (choose one):
  - April 24, 2020, Friday—For oral presentation on Zoom WEBINAR platform (7-minute presentation; 7-minute question/answers, 1-minute transition to next presentation). If selected, you will be sent a link to sign up for a 15-minute time slot between 8:30 a.m. and 12 noon on Friday, April 24, 2020.
  - April 22-29, 2020—For VIRTUAL poster presentation. Your poster will be posted on the Public Health Academic Forum 2020 website. Faculty, students, and other participants will be able to post questions and comments; we encourage you to check your poster tab so that you can answer questions and read comments that are posted. If accepted, poster presenters should submit poster as a PPTX or PDF (size may range from 24” x 36” to 36” x 48”) by April 17, 2020 for posting on the forum website.
- Presenter(s) name, degrees, and title (e.g. student, epidemiologist, etc.):
- Co-authors (if applicable)
- Preceptor or faculty name—NA if non-student
- Graduation date (projected or actual date—must have graduated by May 2019 or later)—NA if non-student
- University, program, school or agency affiliation
- Address
- Phone and e-mail address
- Abstract (typed, single-spaced, no more than 250 words, not including title and authors)—background, methods, results, conclusions. All abstracts must contain some results, even if preliminary
- Brief biographic sketch of presenter(s) e.g. no more than a paragraph

The Ohio Public Health Combined Conference has been CANCELED due to the COVID-19 pandemic!
But you can still share your research and projects ...and practice social distancing!

This is an opportunity for students, faculty, and public health professionals to showcase evaluations, research, projects, and experiences through TWO different opportunities!

- Oral presentations through the Zoom webinar platform on Friday, April 24, 2020, 8:30-12 noon. If you are accepted, you will sign up for a 15-minute time slot—7 minutes for the presentation, 7 minutes for questions, and 1-minute transition to the next presenter.
- Virtual poster presentations posted between April 22-29, 2020 for comment through the discussion forum. See https://phacademicforum.edublogs.org for an example of a poster

Virtual Posters and WEBINAR Presentations!

You will be notified by April 13, 2020 if your abstract is accepted for presentation for the webinar oral presentation or the virtual poster presentation.

SPONSORED BY THE ACADEMIC SECTION
OHIO PUBLIC HEALTH ASSOCIATION

Questions? Amy Lee can be reached at 330-325-6164 or pubhlth@neomed.edu.