

Graduate Student
Working Group for
Foreign Language
Research and Teaching

Building a Versatile Professional Profile

Date: April 9, 2021

Time: 5:00 - 5:45 pm (EST)

Zoom Link

FLRT virtual event: How to Build a Versatile Professional Profile will provide FLRT members a chance to hear from three PhD candidates who have built strong professional profiles in various areas (e.g., teaching, research, and leadership). The panelists will share their experiences and resources and will also participate in a Q&A session.

Invited Panelists

Nicole King

Professional Profile

Dept. of Teaching & Learning

Research Focus: systemic functional linguistics in teacher education for multilingual students in the p-12 context; multimodal literacy practices

Tamara Roose

Professional Profile

Dept. of Teaching & Learning

Research Focus: second language academic literacies; intercultural dimensions of English language education

Budimka Uskokovic

Professional Profile

Dept. of Germanic Languages and Literatures

Research Focus: second language acquisition/ applied linguistics; language teaching with technology; conversation analysis