Duties of the Junior Fair King and Queen Court
Paulding County Junior Fair

1. Attend all Junior Fair activities during the County Fair.

2. Take care of yourself during Fair Week. This means eating and sleeping. A pleasant court is a nice court to be around.

3. Remember to wear your sash/hat during appropriate shows and judgings. In order to make it fair for all participants, please do not wear sash/hat during your own judging.

4. Hand out ribbons/trophies/awards during all Jr. Fair judgings and shows. Please work with the department superintendents to determine a schedule.

5. Attend Senior Fair activities during the County Fair when possible.

6. Livestock Sale – Buyers’ Lunch: Traditionally, the Parents of the King/Queen Court along with the Court are present during the livestock sale to assist with the lunch. The purpose of the lunch is to keep the buyers at the sale and to thank them for their support. Senior Fairboard, King and Queen, and the Extension Office coordinate the Buyers’ Lunch. The sandwiches are prepared on Friday afternoon and assistance is needed in recruiting volunteers to help with this process. Other duties include: setting up the food table, and serving all the buyers during the sale.

7. Attend community and Junior Fair activities, meetings, etc. as asked by the Junior Fairboard Advisors and/or Extension Educator.

8. Participate in countywide parades throughout the year.

9. Meet and greet, other 4-Hers, parents, community members, and guests during the county fair.

Junior Fair King/Queen and Court are to dress appropriately at ALL Junior Fair functions, not only fair week, but throughout the year when representing the Junior Fair program. Please be responsible in choosing your attire and refrain from T-shirts with questionable slogans. Consult the Junior Fairboard advisors with any questions in regards to dress code.

Remember that you are representing the entire Junior Fair program. Please do so with pride, high spirit, and proper etiquette.
