Stress Management and Resiliency Training Lab

Understanding Stress

Perceived Stress Scale

According to the National College Health Survey, more than half of Ohio State students experience above average to tremendous stress. The Perceived Stress Scale is a short survey assessing stress level. A score above an 18 indicates that you are more stressed than 75% of other college-age people.

445 PAES Building, 305 Annie & John Glenn Ave.
Columbus, OH 43210
ehe-smartlab@osu.edu
614-688-5549