To continue receiving our emails, add us to your address book.

View this email

Got this as a forward?

If you wish to be removed from the College of Arts and Sciences - Humanities mailing list, visit 2130 Fulton St University of San Francisco.

Creation and creator digs, ancient gods, and ultimately into the nature of existence itself. Author secret story of creation, which opens a door to life's greatest mysteries. Her

Wednesday, Nov. 16 | 6:30–8 p.m. | Fromm Hall, Maraschi Room

Jeanine Légaré

Légaré is a queer Latinx Jewish artist, was raised in Los Angeles, California by a family of single women, and grew up traveling and living across the western United States and Mexico with their mother, a cultural anthropologist. One of their most popular pieces of writing, La Movida (Nightboat Books 2022), is a book-length poem that grew out of

DIRECTIONS

USFCA.EDU

La Movida

Tatiana Luboviski-Acosta

and

with Tatiana Luboviski-Acosta

Part of the JSSJ “Open Doors” Sukkot Program

Thursday, Oct. 13 | 6:30–8 p.m. | Sukkah on Lone Mountain*

Jews and Indians on Turtle Island: Between

Peoples’ Day

Monday, Oct. 10 | 6:30–8 p.m. | Fromm Hall, Xavier Auditorium

Chai Feldblum

Chai Feldblum, PhD, a former commissioner of the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission and one of the authors of the 1990 Americans with Disabilities Act, will discuss ethical reasons for support of LGBTQI+ rights. But for some — especially those who believe there is no conflict between the exercise of their religious liberty and their

Tuesday, Sept. 13 | 6:30–8 p.m. | Fromm Hall, Xavier Auditorium

Religious Liberty and LBGTQI+ Rights: Navigating

Repairs for African Americans in

Teach-In on Reparations for African Americans in

Sunday, Sept. 18 | 2–4 p.m. | Fromm Hall, Maraschi Room

Eric McDonnell

We are excited to co-sponsor an important conversation about reparations in

Monday, Sept. 19 | 6:30–8 p.m. | Fromm Hall, Xavier Auditorium

Reparations for African Americans.

Rev. Amos Brown

Rev. Amos Brown, chair of the San Francisco Advisory Committee on

Community Partner Opportunities

Virtual programming will take place at the

JFCS Holocaust Center University Fellowship

JFCS Holocaust Center

The JFCS Holocaust Center University Fellowship is now accepting applications for

JFCS Holocaust Center

The JFCS Holocaust Center is an educational and cultural center dedicated to honoring Holocaust survivors, educating the public about the Holocaust, and confronting modern-day antisemitism through education and public policy. Virtual programming

Dr. Andrea Jaffe, PhD

Dr. Andrea Jaffe, PhD

Community Partner Opportunities.

We are excited to announce the opening of the Virtual Spring 2023

JFCS Holocaust Center

The JFCS Holocaust Center is an educational and cultural center dedicated to honoring Holocaust survivors, educating the public about the Holocaust, and confronting modern-day antisemitism through education and public policy. Virtual programming

Dr. Andrea Jaffe, PhD

Dr. Andrea Jaffe, PhD

Community Partner Opportunities.

Community Partner Opportunities.

We are excited to announce the opening of the Virtual Spring 2023