

2019 Ivy Plus EEO Annual Meeting - Agenda for Tuesday, 4/30

Time	Name	Title	Institution	Topic	Description
9:00 - 10:00 A.M.	ALL MEMBERS - Updates, Planning Ahead and Open Forum
10:00 - 10:45 A.M.	Inderdeep Chatrath	Assistant Vice President	Duke University	OFCCP Compliance Reviews: Lessons Learned & Best Practices	Sooner or later, if not already, your institution will come under an OFCCP compliance review. For institutions of higher education, these audits can go on for years. How you manage the audit from the outset and along the way matters, both in terms of your experience within your institution and in the agency's outcome. Join Inderdeep Chatrath (Duke University) and Cheri Burgess (Princeton University) in a discussion that includes: defining your role; managing internal/external relationships; utilizing in-house and external counsel; preparing and presenting data strategically; preparing for and managing the agency's phone interviews and on-site review; and more. The session will be interactive to provide knowledge and experience sharing.
	Cheri Burgess	Director of Institutional Equity and Equal Employment Opportunity	Princeton University
10:45 - 11:00 A.M.	BREAK

2019 Ivy Plus EEO Annual Meeting - Agenda for Tuesday, 4/30

Time	Name	Title	Institution	Topic	Description
11:00 - 11:30 A.M.	Shea Wolfe	Director, Office for Sexual Misconduct Prevention & Support	University of Chicago	Engaging the Campus Community: Title IX and Sexual Misconduct Initiatives and Programs	We are currently experiencing a changing landscape as it pertains to federal regulations, and engagement with the campus community can be effective in explaining, clarifying, and discussing these changes while continuing to build partnerships and credibility in the work. The Office for Sexual Misconduct Prevention and Support will be discussing ways in which Title IX/Equity offices can connect to and engage with the campus community through student leadership programs, marketing & branding, educational sessions/training, and prevention initiatives.
	Megan Heckel	Associate Director, Office for Sexual Misconduct Prevention & Support	University of Chicago
11:30 A.M. - 12:15 P.M.	Sara Furr	Dean of Students, School of Social Service Administration	University of Chicago	Wellness Interventions for Social Justice Fatigue	The unique pressures and demands, along with the current sociopolitical climate, that professionals working towards social justice aims experience can lead to burnout, exhaustion, and decreased organizational productivity. Institutions can lessen social justice fatigue by creating the conditions for staff to be successful in their social justice aims while simultaneously developing policies and practices that allow equitable access to individual wellness plans. This presentation offers something for everyone; whether you're experiencing social justice fatigue and want to develop an individual wellness plan or an organizational leader who wants to
12:15 P.M.	CLOSING REMARKS / LUNCH / DEPARTURES				