Bronzeville Community Action Plan Draft
Violence Prevention through Youth, Family, and Community Development

What we've done
What we recommend
What else?
What's next?

Welcome!
Welcome!

In March:
- Described the Communities that Care Process
- Presented findings from our Community Profile
- Made plans for writing our Community Action Plan

Today:
- Presenting the first draft of our Greater Bronzeville Community Action Plan!
Reading the CAP

Background (presented in March, pgs. 3-9)

Data-driven process (presented in March, pgs. 12-23)

Today's focus --
Section I: Violence Prevention through Youth, Family and Community Development

Section II: Trauma-informed Care and Support

Section III: Education

Section IV: Workforce Development
Bronzeville Community Action Plan Draft
Violence Prevention through Youth, Family, and Community Development

What we've done

What we recommend

What else?

What's next?

Welcome!
What we've done

Community Profile
- Administrative Data
- Youth and Adult Survey
- Risk and Protective Factors
- Resource Assessment

(see pages 12-23 for more information)
Thank you!

Anyone working with youth, adults, schools and families here in Bronzeville

Youth and Adult Survey Participants
Risk and Protective Factor Workgroup
Youth Survey
Adult Resident Survey
Resource Assessment Workgroup
Community Action Plan Workgroup
Community Board
Prioritized Domains to Strengthen

Community Engagement

Community Connection

Peer Relationships

Positive Early Development Childhood Experiences

Community Opportunities for Recognition

Family Support and Engagement

For definitions of these domains, please see page 20 of your Community Action Plan
Bronzeville's Youth Programs

- Academic Support and College Readiness (7)
- After-School Programs (11)
- Apprenticeships (5)
- Art (7)
- Early Childhood (2)
- Family Programs (7)
- Female-identified Youth (4)
- Health and Wellness (5)
- High-Risk Youth (5)
- Male-identified Youth (2)
- Mental Health (5)
- Mentoring (9)
- Recreation and Sports (5)
- STEM and STEAM programs (4)
- Summer Programs (12)
- Vocational Skills (7)
- Youth Leadership (3)
- Youth Workforce Development (13)

Please see the Resource Guide for more information
Bronzeville Community Action Plan Draft
Violence Prevention through Youth, Family, and Community Development

Welcome!

What we've done

What we recommend

What else?

What's next?

Bright Star Community Outreach

Chicago Center for Youth Violence Prevention

Northwestern Medicine

Feinberg School of Medicine
Based on the community profile:

Gaps in youth programming:
- community engagement
- family engagement
- high-risk youth
- early childhood

Prioritized domains:
- community engagement
- community connection
- community opportunities for recognition
- family support and engagement
- peer relationships
- positive early development childhood experiences

Bronzeville Communities that Care Process

Support Bronzeville’s Existing Programs

Build an Evidence-Based Technical Support

Implement New Programs to Fill Identified Gaps

Use Evidence-Based Programs

Reduce Youth and Community Violence
Support Existing Programs

Technical Support Workshops
  - Program design and delivery
  - Program outcomes
  - Program evidence

(pgs. 26-27 for more information)
Recommended Programs

- to fill programming gaps

- to address prioritized domains to ultimately reduce violence

(PPS. 28-33 for more detail)
Community Engagement and Connection

Youth Empowerment Solutions

Clean and Green
High-Risk Youth

Restorative Justice Programs
Family Support and Engagement

GREAT Schools and Families
Early Childhood

Schools and Families Educating Children (SAFE)

ParentCorps
Bronzeville Community Action Plan Draft
Violence Prevention through Youth, Family, and Community Development

Welcome!

What we’ve done
What we recommend
What else?
What’s next?

Bright Star Community Outreach

Chicago Center for Youth Violence Prevention

Northwestern Medicine

training School of Medicine
What else?
What's needed?
What's available?

Small table discussions:
1 recorder
1 facilitator
1 presenter
Bronzeville Community Action Plan Draft
Violence Prevention through Youth, Family, and Community Development

What we've done
What we recommend
What else?
What's next?

Welcome!
What's Next?
What's next?

Section II: Faith-led post-trauma support
  TURN Center Helpline is LIVE!
  833-TURN-123 (Chicago-based toll free #)
  See Rodney Carter for more information

Section III: Education
  Next BCAC Meeting: August 14 -- working towards a Strategic Plan
  See Syda Segovia for more information

Section IV: Workforce Development
  3-year plan with bold goals
  See Nichole Carter for more information
Bronzeville Community Action Plan Draft
Violence Prevention through Youth, Family, and Community Development

Welcome!

What we've done

What we recommend

What else?

What's next?

Bright Star Community Outreach

Chicago Center for Youth Violence Prevention

Northwestern Medicine

Feinberg School of Medicine