WINTER 2018 WORKSHOP SCHEDULE

Meetings are held Fridays at 12:00pm-1:20pm in Foster 103, unless otherwise noted. Papers are made available on our website in advance of the presentation: https://voices.uchicago.edu/reeca/papers/

January 26          John Latham-Sprinkle (SOAS University of London)
"Alania: A State of Mind"
Discussant: Michael Khodarkovsky, Professor of History (Loyola University Chicago)

February 9         Sofia Kalo (UMass Amherst/Independent Scholar)
"Spectacular Promises: The Politics of Art and Memory in Postsocialist Albania"
Discussant: Evgenia Olimpieva, PhD Student in Political Science (University of Chicago)

February 23        Zosha Winegar-Schultz (University of Minnesota)
"Я Самиа, Фотка Себя: The Селфи as Domestic Politics and Practice in Russia"
Discussant: Claire Roosien, PhD Candidate in History and NELC (University of Chicago)

March 9            Alexander Herbert (University of Chicago)
"Protesting Destruction: Chapaevsk and The Rise of Provincial Green Politics in Late Soviet Russia"
Discussant: Abigail Bratcher, PhD Student in History (University of Chicago)

For any inquiries regarding workshop email list, meeting time/place, or accommodations/access, please e-mail the workshop student coordinator at christymonet@uchicago.edu with requests.

Workshop faculty sponsors: Prof. Bird (Slavic), Prof. Gilburd (History), Prof. Nickell (Slavic)