CFR resources that might be of interest:

- Visit CFR Campus for tools and resources designed specifically for teaching and learning about U.S. foreign policy and international relations.
- Watch live streams of many CFR on-the-record events in real time or view videos of past events at www.cfr.org/live.
- Follow CFR’s blogs for analysis from fellows in the David Rockefeller Studies Program.
- Explore CFR’s Backgrounders, which offer comprehensive overviews on current issues.
- Browse award-winning multimedia interactives on the foreign policy, national security, and international financial issues of the day.
- Read Foreign Affairs for in-depth insights on international issues, profiles of world leaders, and book reviews, both in print and online.
- Follow us on Twitter @CFR_Academic to keep current with CFR’s coverage of world events as they unfold.
- Sign up for participation in our Academic Conference Call series by sending a request to academic@cfr.org. (Listen to past calls at http://www.cfr.org/educators/academic-conference-calls.html.)

Finally, please explore Model Diplomacy, CFR’s free multimedia National Security Council simulation program that engages students in understanding the challenges of shaping and implementing foreign policy. For more information, visit modeldiplomacy.cfr.org or contact modeldiplomacy@cfr.org.

Maria Casa can be contacted at:

Maria Casa
Director, National Program & Outreach Administration
Council on Foreign Relations
58 East 68th Street, New York, New York 10065
tel 212.434.9674    fax 212.434.9829
mcasa@cfr.org   www.cfr.org