

CALL FOR PROPOSALS

a series of small gestures

Rolling deadline: submit now, and proposals will be considered on a rolling basis starting December 14, 2020

What is immediate, integral, or meaningful for you right now? How do small gestures of care shape your life? The Feitler Center for Academic Inquiry at the Smart Museum of Art invites all UChicago students to submit proposals for 1–3 minute videos reflecting on the questions of how we care for ourselves and each other.

a series of small gestures is related to the Smart Museum's exhibition Take Care, which explores the multi-faceted nature of the ways care is conveyed and experienced. Up to 10 accepted video proposals will receive a prize of $100 each and will be featured on the Smart Museum's social media and digital channels throughout Winter Quarter.
