Capstone Course Update

Tuesday evening, the GPHAP Capstone Course report-out included a wonderful presentation from our UnitedHealthcare: Food Insecurity team. Next week we will hear final presentations from all our teams!

Upcoming Events

Wed. May 19th 6:00PM CT Register Here
The Harris Office of Diversity & Inclusion Presents: "A Conversation with Dr. Mona Hanna-Attisha"
"A pediatrician and social advocate, and the daughter of Iraqi immigrants, Dr. Hanna-Attisha chronicles her fight to help the residents of Flint, Michigan, through the use of science, medicine, and activism that eventually gained international attention – but only after experiencing much personal strife.

In collaboration with the Program on Global Environment's Frizzell Family Speaker and Learning Series, join us for a conversation with Dr. Hanna-Attisha to culminate our Common Read events for the 2020–2021 school year."

Thurs. May 20th 5:00PM CT Register Here
Partners in Health Live Discussion on Racism and Mental Health

"COVID–19 is challenging mental health for everyone. Though vaccinations and ongoing solidarity movements are reasons to feel hope, communities worldwide are experiencing stress and trauma on a daily basis.

PHI premier mental health experts and celebrity activists will examine how health and our society at large are permeated with inequalities. Panelists will share their lived experiences with mental health and racism within their respective industries and communities. We hope attendees are driven from awareness to action and prioritize mental health for themselves and those they love beyond Mental Health Action Day."

Upcoming Deadline to Submit Co-curriculars

All co-curriculars due for graduating students, Monday, June 7.
For all other students Monday, June 14.
