Vote

Voters may cast their ballots in one of two ways:

- In-Person
- By Mail
Vote By Mail before Election Day

Eligibility
- Any Pennsylvania voter can vote by mail
- If you vote in another state, visit vote.upenn.edu/mail-in-voting-at-home to confirm your eligibility

Types of Ballots (in PA)
- Mail-in ballot (recommended)
- Absentee ballot
- Both are essentially the same, but technically absentee ballots require an excuse

Deadlines (in PA)
- The County must receive your request form by 5pm EST the Tuesday before an election so PLTV suggests sending it as soon as possible
- See vote.upenn.edu/events for deadlines in another states.

Common Concerns

• Your financial aid is not impacted by where you register to vote.
• Being registered to vote at a different address from your parents will not prevent your parents from claiming you as a dependent on tax forms.
• Out of state students may register at their campus address, even if they live in a school dormitory.
• Registering to vote in Pennsylvania will not affect your car registration or driver’s license.
Frequently Asked Questions

• Can I register in PA if I’m already registered in another state? Yes, simply fill out a new registration form and do not vote at your old registration location.

• If I am registered in another state but want to vote in PA, do I submit a new registration or a change of address? Voter registration is state-by-state, so select new registration if this is your first time registering in PA.

• When is the voter registration deadline? October 19th.

• How do I change my voter registration address? It is easiest to submit a new registration at vote.upenn.edu/register.
Frequently Asked Questions

• I live in a dorm, what is my address? Click here

• When is the mail-in ballot request deadline? Your request form must be received by 5pm the Tuesday before Election Day

• Do I need to bring an ID with me to vote? If it is your first time voting at the specific polling place, you need to bring your PennCard or another valid PA or Federal ID.
