Rooftop Gardens for Sustainable Livelihoods

Jacques du Toit
City of Cape Town
Environmental Resource Management Department
44 Wale Street
Cape Town 8001, South Africa
021 487 2832
Jacques.duToit@capetown.gov.za
www.capetown.gov.za/environment

The rooftop gardening idea is property of Touching the Earth Lightly.

Stephen Lamb
stephen@touchingtheearthlightly.co.za
021 788 4183
www.touchingtheearthlightly.com

Produce

- Oyster mushrooms
- Alfalfa sprouts
- Mung bean sprouts
- Brussel sprout micro greens
- Baby butter lettuce sprouts
- Baby spinach sprouts
<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Programme Mission</th>
<th>The Produce</th>
<th>Advertisement Opportunities</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>• To develop a network of rooftop gardens producing oyster mushrooms and micro greens within the Central Business District of Cape Town.</td>
<td>The rooftop garden produce is grown organically without the use of pesticides locally within the Central Business District of Cape Town. The produce is distributed within hours of harvesting after washing and packaging.</td>
<td>Consumers are increasingly aware of quality and ethical concerns surrounding food production. Participating restaurants will be:</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>• To employ low income workers from the city bowl and surrounding settlements to produce high quality items for your menus.</td>
<td></td>
<td>• Officially recognized by the city of Cape Town.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td>• Given a programme sign for your shop window.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td>• Given an icon to place next to menu items that include the rooftop garden produce.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>