

Veterans Upward Bound Summer Bridge

What is the Bridge Program?

The Summer Bridge Program is offered by Veterans Upward Bound to ensure the success of veteran students. It includes opportunities to become familiar with a college campus and resources, increase your Math skills, and connect with other student veterans who can share your college experience. Veterans Upward Bound will provide ongoing college coaching and academic support, working closely with you to ensure your successful college graduation.

Participants can complete the entire program or select dates with topics most relevant to your interests and needs.

What will the Bridge Program Offer You?

- $120 stipend for program completion
- Course materials and academic supplies provided at no cost
- Daily lunches at no cost
- Personal growth, career exploration, study skills
- New experiences, learning, confidence, friends, and mentors

Apply now for the best opportunity for participation. Priority deadline is Friday, June 29, 2018.
